Eighteenth Week of Ordinary Time

*"He who comes to me never be hungry.
He who believes in me will never thirst."*

We continue reading from John 6: this is the aftermath of the miracle, and we see the beginnings of a misunderstanding that will develop over the next four weeks. People have seen the miracle, but not the message: they have seen the sign, but not what it points towards. The bread that was given is a sign of the Bread of Life, which is the teaching, the words and the very person of Jesus, as the revelation of the Father. His mission is to draw people back to his Father, to found a New Covenant or relationship. As the weeks go by, we will see that the people's hunger is simply for spectacle and miracle, not for the much harder teaching of living nourished by God's word and the presence of his only Son. For us, the People of the New Covenant, these passages must make us think of how we receive the Lord in the Eucharist. Are we nourished by his presence, so that all the hunger and thirst of our lives is answered by the One who is the Bread of Life?

Marriage Matters

Jesus will give us courage and strength: The readings today focus very much on God's love and care for each of us. Our relationship at times can be challenged by something like a serious physical or mental illness, making it very hard to communicate. At such times, if we dig deep, we will find the trust we have in Jesus. This can pull us through together.

Think Vocation

Every time we come to Mass and receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, we have an opportunity to dedicate our Communion for a particular intention. Perhaps this week, we could offer this intention for vocations to the priesthood and Religious Life.

Scripture Festival - Joy the Surprise of the Gospel: Takes place at Salford Cathedral and the Cathedral Centre on 6 October 2018. The theme of Joy has been chosen to reflect the appealing message of Pope Francis in The Joy of the Gospel. The day is designed to offer a taste of scripture to a wide range of people across the North of England. There will not just be an opportunity for bible study but also to respond to the text in words, art and prayer. Full publicity and booking forms will be available shortly.

Reader's Rota: A new rota will be published and available at the back of each church next weekend. If anyone would like to become a reader or, alternatively, have their name removed from the list, please contact the parish office on 301927.

Sunday Masses - Prayers of Intercession: As some of you are aware, at the 5pm Vigil Mass at St Brendan's, the Prayers of Intercession are read by the same person who is on the reading rota. In order to standardise this, I would like to invite the reader at the 9am and 11am Masses to do the same. As there are many people away at the moment, it would be appropriate to start this on the weekend of 1st and 2nd September. Please do come and have a chat with me if you have any questions. Fr David
