The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last week, when Jesus spoke in the synagogue, his words pleased the crowd - as we hear at the beginning of today's Gospel. How quickly the mood changes! This story shows very clearly that Jesus was not a "crowd-pleaser" - he wasn't interested in saying the right things to be popular or accepted. He was interested in the truth - which is the basic definition of a prophet - whatever the personal cost. So today, when Jesus points out that salvation is not just for the Jews, or even just the people of Nazareth, they reject the message and the messenger. Just like Jeremiah, when he was called to be a prophet (first reading), Jesus has to confront the land: they will fight with him, but not overcome him.

Marriage Matters

We reflect God's love: Through our marriage we become a living flesh and blood sacrament of our Church! Saint Paul says 'be ambitious for the higher gifts'. Our love isn't just a warm feeling but an action; it flourishes in being given attention to and nurtured. In this way we become a Sacramental 'sign' of God's love for our children, family, friends and Church.

Think Vocation

I used to talk like a child, think like a child." Children are often very ambitious when they think about their future lives. As adults we should encourage children to discover their gifts as they get older but to always remember they are firstly children of God. So whatever they turn out to do with their lives, they should remember to be grateful to God.

A Message of Thanks

Dear Friends in the Parish of Corpus Christi, Can I begin by first of all wishing you all a very Happy and Peaceful New Year 2019 and I pray that for all of us it will be a chance to grow as Missionary Disciples with the Lord staying with us on our journey. I want to thank you all for the very kind and generous gift you gave to me on the 23rd December as I moved on to pastures new. It was such a wonderful occasion at the Mass and many thanks to Fr David for the invite and all of you for your generosity in this gift. Many thanks.

It certainly is on to pastures new and a completely different way of ministering as a Missionary Disciple, never did I think that from the odd call to Royal Bolton Hospital I would end up as full time Chaplain to Blackburn Hospital with 790 beds across all the sites, 7,500 staff as well as patients. The Lord certainly does like to be a God of Surprises. But together we make a difference. So many thanks and prayers for all. I'm sure we will meet up again at various events, Lourdes or in the Diocese. My prayers and best wishes to you all. Fr Frank

Thank you: Paul and Caryl Shechter would like to thank everyone who helped them after the sudden death of Paul's mum (Nellie). The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for your intentions. God Bless you all.

Caritas Sunday: Thank you to everybody who contributed to last week's Caritas Sunday. Our parish raised £565.83, which will allow Caritas Diocese of Salford to #BeTheChange in our own parish and across the Diocese. If you want to use your gifts and talents to #BeTheChange and to be missionary disciples in our parish, please speak to our Caritas Representative, Julie Summerton.

First Holy Communion Mass Times: For those who have a child taking part in this year's Sacramental Programme, lists are now in both churches for the various dates and Mass times available for First Communion. Please make sure your child has their name on a list as soon as you can.

Service for Engaged Couples: Cathedral of St John, Chapel Street, Salford, M3 5LE on Saturday 9 February 2019 at 3pm. Bishop John will be leading a Special Service of Blessing for Engaged Couples at Salford Cathedral. This date has been chosen because it is the weekend closest to the feast of St Valentine. During the Celebration, God's particular Blessing will be asked for all couples getting married this year, as they enter this final stage of preparation for marriage. The Diocese looks forward to welcoming all the couples who will be celebrating their marriage this year.

Full details can be found on the diocesan website or via the poster at the back of Church.

St Josephine Bakhita: Thursday 8 February is the Feast Day of St Josephine Bakhita - the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking. On this day Catholics are encouraged to pray for all those affected by the crimes of modern slavery and human trafficking, and the people that volunteer and work to eradicate this crime. This year the particular focus is on those who are caught up in forced labour and exploitation both in the UK and beyond. On the back page of our newsletter is an item from The Santa Marta Group (an initiative of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales) whose mission is to bring the global Church and law enforcement together to combat and eradicate modern slavery. For more information about St Josephine Bakhita who, herself, was kidnapped at the age of nine and sold into slavery, please visit www.santamartagroup/santa-marta.

MODERN SLAVERY BACKGROUND AND OVERVIEW

There are an estimated 40 million victims of modern slavery worldwide. Modern slavery now ranks as the second most profitable worldwide criminal enterprise. Modern slavery is a serious crime in which people are coerced or deceived into a situation where they are exploited, for the purpose of making a profit. This exploitation can take many forms including; forced labour, sexual exploitation, domestic servitude, forced criminality and organ harvesting. It is believed that modern slavery affects every country in the world and here in the UK some recent figures suggest there are in excess of 100,000 victims hidden in plain sight. Labour exploitation currently makes up the greatest percentage of modern slavery cases in the UK. Victims of forced labour are made to work long hours, often in tough conditions without the training and safety measures in place. The majority, if not all, of wages are taken by the traffickers. This often accompanied by threats and violence. Cases of labour exploitation have been widely reported in car washes and nail bars however victims have been found in the manufacturing, entertainment, hospitality, agriculture, and construction industries. The eradication of modern slavery and the pastoral care of victims is a priority for the Catholic Church. Pope Francis continually draws the attention of the Church and the wider world to the moral and human crisis evident in this widespread exploitation. “Faced with the tragic reality of rising contemporary slavery, no one can wash their hands of it without being, in some way, an accomplice to this crime against humanity. This immense task, which requires courage, patience and perseverance, demands a joint and global effort on the part of the different actors that make up society.” (Pope Francis to the participants of the 2nd International Forum on Modern Slavery, May 2018)
