

NEWSLETTER FOR ST BRENDAN, HARWOOD
& ST JOHN THE EVANGELIST, BROMLEY CROSS

11TH SEPTEMBER 2011

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus tells a dramatic story in the Gospel, to make a very important point: the desperate need in our world for forgiveness and reconciliation. How many chances do we give each other? As many as seven? How often do we shut doors on people, even family and friends, saying “That’s it; you’ve just gone too far this time: never again”? When Jesus says that we must forgive ‘seventy-seven’ times, he implies that we never stop forgiving, whatever happens. He doesn’t just say this, however: even when they do the worst thing that could be done to him, nailing him to a cross, Jesus puts these words into practice: “Father, forgive them...” As his disciples, we must do likewise.

Think Vocations

At our Masses this weekend we have opportunity to hear from Joe Gee, the seminarian on placement in our parishes, about his own vocation story. Please pray for Joe over the coming months as he prepares for ordination. Let us also pray that others, especially from our own parishes, might be called to priesthood and respond generously.

The headteacher will speak to all in the Chapel at 6.15pm.

SVP: We are now observing the annual "Awareness Month" which highlights aspects of the work of the SVP. This year's theme is Seeking Christ in Our Midst. ### 2012 Olympics – Diocesan Relay of Prayer

On your marks, get set...

With the 2012 London Olympic and Paralympic games less than a year away now, Salford Diocese is organising a Relay of Prayer involving all the Catholic schools in the diocese. A torch will be taken in relay from one school to another, beginning in November and ending in July 2012 at Salford Cathedral. Each school will focus on and research one of the countries taking part in the games.

For the launch event on 15 September (at Thornleigh), there will be six pupil ambassadors from each school and various celebrities. We would also be keen to hear from any past or present Olympians or Paralympians from the parishes in our diocese. If you are an Olympian or Paralympian, please contact the Department for Evangelisation on 0161 761 0563 or by e-mail to paul.cannon@dioceseofsalford.org.uk for further information.

Please note that, for safeguarding purposes, attendance at the launch event at Thornleigh is by invitation only.
