Fourteenth Week of Ordinary Time

A prophet's job is to open people's eyes to the reality of their situation - pointing out to them the things they would rather forget or ignore. A prophet is a sort of "national conscience", always awake to situations of injustice and always speaking out about them. A prophet is commissioned to do this by God, who sends the prophet on his mission Jesus is just such a prophet - teaching and preaching about the Kingdom of God and the best way to live. Despite the welcome his message has received elsewhere, when he comes to his hometown he is faced with rejection -such that "he was amazed at their lack of faith." It is curious is that they seem to accept his wisdom, and his miracles, but because he grew up among them they cannot accept him as a teacher from God. We should remember that it is often hardest to stand up for the truth among those who know us well.

Marriage Matters

Recognizing our real beauty: When we married we became, together, a 'prophet', not predicting the future, but proclaiming the good news of marriage, here and now. Yet, there are times when we feel sorry for ourselves, blaming each other. Let's admit our own faults and weaknesses and remind one another of the beautiful qualities we found when we first fell in love.

Think Vocation

"This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary." Sometimes our remarks and comments can stifle confidence in other people. We do not see the potential a person has as God sees. When we speak to other people let's be encouraging and uplifting. We should be gently striving for each person to become the person God wants them to be.

This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. To donate online please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk. Thank you.

Faith and Science: An opportunity to discuss the relationship between faith and science. From Faith to Experience: taking a further look at natural theology. Our starting point will be the comment made by Cardinal Newman: "I believe in design because I believe in God; not in a God because I see design." We will consider how Alister McGrath and John Polkinghorne have developed a natural theology, which moves from God to man rather than in the reverse direction. We will conclude by exploring Polkinghorne's thinking about science and the Trinity utilising such an interpretative framework. All welcome
Date: 18th July. Time: 7pm-9pm

Mass will be celebrated by Bishop John with music from our wonderful pilgrimage choir. This will be followed by refreshments in the Cathedral Cloisters and a chance to catch up with friends old and new before we travel. Please do wear your Salford blue t-shirts and hoodies if you have them and let's fill the Cathedral with a sea of Salford blue! We look forward to seeing you.
