The Fifth Sunday of Easter

We are now closer to Ascension and Pentecost than Easter, but we are still in the Easter Season. The readings this Sunday begin to move us along too, as once more we hear the Lord at the Last Supper preparing his disciples for his departure: he does this by giving them a rule to live by, a new commandment. This Commandment, “love one another”, is to be the guiding light of the community of believers after Pentecost (check the first reading for the Second Sunday of Easter) - it is the risen Lord’s parting gift to his Church

Marriage Matters

Today is all we have: We as a couple are unique - a one off! No other couple is quite like us. We can share the load, lighten the burden, and double the joys! Jesus said ‘Love one another as I have loved you’. Just as I care for myself, I must care for you too in the same way. Let us celebrate our coupleness.

Think Vocation

“I give you a new commandment: love one another.” Living in a family or as a Religious in community is not always easy. There is sometimes conflict and misunderstanding but these have to be lived out in Christian love. However there are many opportunities to grow in our appreciation and understanding of God. Through such experiences, we can become stronger in faith, as well as able to learn about ourselves and other people.

The sessions include all ages (our oldest player is currently 80+ and youngest in their teens) and focus on those aged 50+. Both sessions take place outdoors on grass and most importantly offer a cuppa and a biscuit at "half time". We play various sports and everyone is welcome; it doesn't matter if you have never played or are an "international" the idea is to be active, have fun, a chat and a cuppa. Please see the posters in both churches for more details.
