Second Sunday of Advent

Throughout the first three weeks of Advent our focus is very clearly on the End of Time, and the Second Coming of the Lord - not on the run up to Christmas (that only comes in the last week).

If we view Advent as a Season preparing for Christmas these readings will make little sense - and neither will the figure of John the Baptist who appears today: if it was about the preparation for Christmas, then John the Baptist, preaching after Jesus was born, becomes a confusing figure: his role is to preach to us, as he did of old, and to prepare us for the (second) coming of the Lord. Everything gets more specific today: what is being preached is not an event, but a person: Isaiah promises him, John welcomes him, Paul invites us to imitate him. We have here a thumbnail portrait of the Messiah - useful to refer to when we get to Christmas and he is revealed as a child in a manger!

Marriage Matters

Advent - a new beginning for us? Today, Isaiah talks about trust and Matthew focuses on forgiveness. Advent is the opportunity to discover new ways to help our partner to trust us and to share themselves. Our prayer can be that we drop our defences, become more vulnerable and have the courage to open ourselves to be able to really listen, to share and to change.

Think Vocation

St John the Baptist was the voice that cries in the wilderness asking people to prepare a way for the Lord and to change their ways. Like John, the voice of the Church can seem to be a voice in the wilderness of our world. It might not be a message that the world wants to hear but it needs to hear it. May others be called to serve in the Church as a voice for the Lord for his people today.

Baptism Preparation: If you are seeking Baptism for your child, please contact the Parish Office. Tel: 01204 301927 or email office@sbsj.org.uk

Christmas Poinsettias: If you would like to sponsor a poinsettia plant in memory of a loved one, please complete a form (at the back of each church) and state which church you would like your memorial to be displayed in. All requests can be placed in the boxes provided

Hymn Books: The supplementary sheet of hymns has now been added to each hymn book, as an extra leaf, so that the hymns are in numerical order with 900 to 906 appearing after the hymns numbered in the eight hundreds. The hymns are no longer on a loose sheet. The choir would like to extend their thanks to the parishioner who sorted this out for the congregation.

Fair Trade: The Fair Trade stall will be available at each service this weekend. At St Brendan's it will be in the Harbour Room and at St John's it will be placed in the Patmos Room. Thank you for your continuing support

Hope in the Future - Stage Three

This weekend there will be another short Pastoral message from the Bishop together with a worksheet "Meeting Jesus in our Welcome" for us to begin our reflection.

Living the Sunday Eucharist: Second Instalment

During Stage 3 of Hope in the Future, we are considering four particular "moments" in our celebration of the Sunday Eucharist. Our participation in the Mass binds us together as disciples, strengthens us and prepares us for our mission. During Stage 3 of our Pastoral Programme we are reflecting on how we encounter Jesus in four key parts of the Mass: Our Welcome, Our Listening, Our Offering and Our Mission. This week, as we enter the Season of Advent, we concentrate on meeting Jesus in our Welcome. This Welcome is expressed in various ways. We arrive at church and welcome one another as members together of our parish community and be sure that visitors feel welcomed as our guests. We have come from our busy lives to celebrate the family of our parish. We bring with us our intentions for ourselves, family and friends and our hopes and concerns. When we arrive at Church, we encounter Jesus in one another, the Body of Christ. We are also welcomed, in the opening prayers of our Mass, by Jesus himself who greets us with forgiveness and reconciliation. As we prepare to welcome Jesus anew this Christmas let us pray that each of us personally, and our parish community, may 'prepare a way for the Lord' in our lives. (Matthew 3:3).

Lourdes at Home: Throughout the year Salford Lourdes Pilgrimage have 'Lourdes at Home' events to bring volunteers together and give those who can't join us on the pilgrimage a chance to get involved and experience a little bit of the atmosphere of Lourdes. The first 'Lourdes at Home' offering, for this year, is for our youth volunteers and pilgrims and is an evening of Adoration and Reflection, led by Fr Mark Paver. It will be next Friday 13 December at 7.30pm at St Luke's Church, Salford.

Fortalice Christmas Toy Collection: As in previous years, we have been asked if parishioners would kindly donate a newly purchased gift or voucher for children at Fortalice. These will be collected at Masses on 14/15 December. Thank you for your continued support.

An Advent Examination

Edward Hays, A Pilgrim's Almanac

Advent is the perfect time to clear and prepare the Way. Advent is a winter training camp for those who desire peace. By reflection and prayer, by reading and meditation, we can make our hearts a place where a blessing of peace would desire to abide and where the birth of the Prince of Peace might take place.

Daily we can make an Advent examination. Are there any feelings of discrimination toward race, sex, or religion? Is there a lingering resentment, an unforgiven injury living in our hearts? Do we look down upon others of lesser social standing or educational achievement? Are we generous with the gifts that have been given to us, seeing ourselves as their stewards and not their owners? Are we reverent of others, their ideas and needs, and of creation? These and other questions become Advent lights by which we may search the deep, dark corners of our hearts.
