   In the Cycle of Sunday Readings, the oldest are those of Year A in Lent - these Gospels have accompanied the Church for many centuries. We must realise why: Lent was originally the time of immediate preparation of candidates for Baptism at Easter (something which has been reintroduced to the Church by RCIA): those already baptised used it as a time to prepare for the renewal of Baptismal promises. This is why so much of the Scripture in Lent is about Baptism, New Life and Salvation. What is the new life of Baptism? What are we set free from? What is sin? We begin Lent by hearing about sin and temptation; the Gospel will tell us of Jesus' own temptations, something he shares with us, though he did not sin. The other Scripture readings prepare us for the Gospel, in which Jesus, the new Adam, triumphs over temptation.  	   Lent is a Season of preparation for the whole Paschal Triduum - Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday: not just a time to reflect on the Cross. Often our Lenten devotions can focus exclusively on the Cross, and the idea of Baptism can be lost. This is why the Church invites us to join the disciples in looking beyond the cross this Sunday: we see the glory of Easter, the glory of the resurrection and the glory of the baptised. We see all this in the Transfiguration: we are invited to recognise who Jesus is. It is the glorified Jesus, whom we will celebrate at Easter, who calls us to journey through Lent, just as God called Abram to journey far from his home. So the readings lead to us acknowledge that Lent is a very special 'calling', to follow the Lord of glory to the renewal of baptismal purity.

Think Vocation Today, at the Cathedral, the Bishop will accept catechumens and candidates to become new Catholics at Easter. We all have a part to play in spreading the faith. May we ask ourselves each day of Lent what it is that we need to do to ensure that our lives fully radiate the loving warmth of Christ so that others may be drawn to the Lord and his Church through our witness	Think Vocation Temptation is a very powerful force at work in our world. It is as strong today as it ever was. Society can make us narrow minded and think only of ourselves and what we can get out of life. This can lead to destruction of the spirit of generosity needed to foster vocations within the Church. Temptation can make us closed to the promptings of the Holy Spirit that lead us closer to God. If we are tempted to despair over the future of the Church, then let us reconnect during this Holy Season of Lent with the New Covenant established in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Parish Survey: Thank you to all those who completed the survey and/or attended the parish meetings to help determine the future priorities for our Parish. The consensus was that we focus on three key areas:

1. Developing the involvement of the youth of our parish particularly building the links between our church & school communities and encouraging the inclusion of children and young adults in our Sunday Masses.

2. The ministry of welcoming including training parishioners as 'welcomers' and encouraging all parishioners to create a welcoming atmosphere at all our services and events.

3. Welcome and preparation time before Mass

If you would like to be involved or share your ideas on any of the above please speak to any member of the Parish Enabling Team or Fr Alf.

Hope in the Future, Living the Sunday Eucharist

(1st Sunday of Lent)

LITURGY OF THE WORD: The First Reading

Last week we talked about the structure of the Sunday readings, and talked about the First reading being an “introduction” to the Gospel. We now read more of the Old Testament through the three-year cycle than ever before, though sometimes the readings chosen can be challenging. The Old Testament is a story spanning many centuries, written in many different styles, but always articulating the Covenant - the special relationship God forged with the Chosen People (“Testament” is another word for “Covenant”). This Covenant is completed by Jesus in all he said and did, most especially the “Paschal Mystery” - his death and resurrection. So in our faith, Jesus “completes” the first reading from the Old Testament. We should take care never to rush into the Liturgy of the Word - sometimes First Readings are quite short, and it is possible for a congregation still to be settling down when the reader gets to “The Word of the Lord”! Whoever is proclaiming the first reading should make a point of studying the Gospel too - since this will help them emphasise those parts of their reading which “point to” the Gospel. The Old Testament can be forbidding sometimes: the Church has selected passages which have a resonance for us because of Jesus - try and be open to the fascinating story of God’s people journeying through the centuries. This journey is continued in Eastertide, when the first readings tell the story of the early Church (after the resurrection) from the book of Acts. There is a fuller explanation of the way these readings work in the Introduction to the Lectionary* which is worth having a look at! Sometimes there is a deeper structure: for example in Lent Year A the first readings follow a sequence week by week - they take us through some of the most important moments of the Old Testament, meeting Adam, Abraham, Moses and David - but always with a “sacramental” emphasis - water, oil, breath and life - which is pointing to the celebration and renewal of Baptism at Easter. * (chapters IV and V - Volume 1, pages xxx -xlili)

The Memorare

The Memorare, below, invites us to ask the Blessed Mother for her assistance and her grace, especially when we feel most troubled in our daily lives.

Remember, O most loving Virgin Mary, that it is a thing unheard of that anyone ever had recourse to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession and was left forsaken. Filled therefore with confidence in your goodness, I fly to you O Mother, Virgin of virgins. To you I come, before you I stand, a sorrowful sinner. Despise not my poor words O Mother of the Word of God, but graciously hear and grant my prayer. Amen.
