Today, we look back in time to the first few weeks after the death and resurrection of Our Lord and we begin to see a growing realisation from the followers of Jesus of the real meaning of his teaching. We see this very clearly in their new understanding of forgiveness and reconciliation. Looking at the actions of the early church can teach us so much about our own understanding of the message of Christ and remind us again of how the mercy of God affects our lives today.

The passage from Acts is a real attempt by the Apostles to reach out to the people of Jerusalem, not in condemnation, but in a spirit of reconciliation. The people may have been ashamed by the events surrounding the Passover and the death of Jesus; now the apostles are appealing to them to reconsider their actions and turn again to God. This is the Christian way; to condemn the sin, but love the sinner. There are many dreadful acts of violence in our world today against Christian churches. If we are to act in the spirit of Jesus, then our response must be to forgive these acts and try to rebuild the relationships that has been broken. Saint John is writing to the infant church and advising them on their response to personal sin. This letter is a simple explanation of the Sacrament of Penance. It stresses the need to stop the actions which are causing sin, it urges us to turn to God in our sorrow for our actions and it reminds us that after forgiveness comes a firm purpose of amendment when we strive to keep God's commandments and sin no more.

The Gospel story follows the passage on the Road to Emmaus and the scene that the two disciples find when they return to Jerusalem. The disciples are talking about Jesus when he appears in their midst. This is a reminder to us of the truth that when two or three are gathered in his name Jesus is there with them. Jesus then teaches them again about forgiveness and reconciliation. He is not afraid to show his wounds, he reminds us that he, too, knows what it is like to suffer in an unjust world. He reminds them of the power of scripture, and he opens their minds, and ours, to understand the Word of God.

Congratulations: To Roseanna Emilia Maria Drabble who was baptised last weekend. We pray that both she and her family continue to grow in faith.

Ecclesiastical Education Fund: We are grateful to all those who support vocations within the diocese. We ask that you continue to pray for our seminarians and all those who are on the journey of discernment. We also give thanks to all those who have chosen to serve the diocese. You can find out more about the diocesan vocation's office here. If you would like to support the work of the Ecclesiastical Education Fund, which funds the training and support of those in formation for the diaconate or priesthood for the Diocese of Salford, any contribution to our special collection at Masses next weekend would be appreciated. Fr Alf is meeting potential seminarians on Saturday we would ask for your continued prayers.

Thank you: The Destitution Project have sent us a letter expressing their heartfelt thanks for all the items and cash donations sent to them as a result of our Lenten Collection. The number of people who use the service has risen significantly and they now give out between 50 and 55 food parcels per week. Because of the rising food costs, they have had to reduce the amount of food given out each week so without the help of groups like ours, they would struggle to continue their work. Thank you to everyone for all your support.

Appeal: This summer, we would like to grow some more vegetables and flowers. To do this, we would like to build another raised bed at the front of St John's Church. If anyone has any pressure treated/tanalised panels (like the other bed) that they want to get rid of, we would be happy to take them off your hands! Please contact the parish office if you can help. Thank you.

Christian Meditation: Begins at 7.30pm. All welcome.
