Pentecost

Pentecost day comes round every year; it is a milestone in our lives. We emerge from Lent and Easter often breathless and aware that once again Christ has paid the ultimate price for our behaviour, and we make the decision to change our ways; make a new resolution to come closer to Him and follow His way. Then the sunshine of summer enters our lives, and we say "Tomorrow Lord" and the summer days pass by until we are once again in autumn and nothing has really changed. How can we change these hearts of ours? How can we make them hearts of flesh and not stone? Pentecost Sunday is about being changed through an experience. In the first reading the Apostles are changed utterly by their experience of the Holy Spirit; they had listened to the promises of Jesus but could not grasp the reality of His word. Now it is here and happening; they are transformed, they are no longer the frightened crowd of the Good Friday church they are invigorated, encouraged and challenged by their encounter with the Holy Spirit and as they speak to the crowd all who see this transformation are amazed and astonished.

Today's Psalm speaks of how basic the Holy Spirit is to life itself. In our Creed, we call Him "the Giver of Life", the psalmist tells us "You send forth your spirit, and they are created, and you renew the face of the earth". The passage from Romans reminds us that our transformation is a spiritual experience. Paul tells us that, through the Spirit we become "children of God". We can overcome the flesh, which causes us to sin, by building spiritual lives that inspire us to cry "Abba! Father!".

John's Gospel reminds us of the words of Our Lord - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. This passage speaks of the promise of Jesus to all those who love Him and keep His word. Our Lord assures us that His word will not fail for the Holy Spirit, the helper sent by the Lord, will teach us and help us to remain true to Him. Today is special, both for those who have been faithful all their lives but also for new members of our church who have experienced a real transformation through the blessing of the Easter Vigil. This day was made by the Lord, may we allow the Spirit to enter our lives and transform us. David Frank

Day for Life: Next weekend we will hold a special collection for Day for Life. The theme this year is 'Hope Does Not Disappoint: Finding Meaning in Suffering'. The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death. This year's theme is inspired by Romans 5:5-6. St Paul invites us to see that Christian hope is not just naïve optimism but, rather, an unshakeable trust in the power and presence of God who is with us always. This hope can endure the darkness of human suffering and even see beyond it. Suffering touches every person at some point in their lives. It is often associated with illness, grief, and loss. Christians are not immune to this mystery, and we often struggle to know how best to respond to it, and where we can find hope. Let us continue to pray for the dignity of all human life from conception to natural death and to send hope to all who are suffering.

Please bring any foreign or old coins/notes to church throughout June, July & August and we will pass them on.
